All-States Recordbook

The recordbook is the best tool a notary can use for protection against claims of impropriety or malpractice. You may also hear the recordbook called a notary journal, log, or register. The ASN All-States Recordbook of Notarial Acts is an essential tool that allows you to document every notarial act you perform.

Although some states do not require use of a recordbook, ASN recommends that every notary use a recordbook to minimize exposure to liability and to keep track of every notarial service performed.

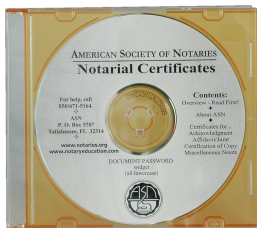

ASN ALL-STATES RECORDBOOK OF NOTARIAL ACTS—$12.95

The recordbook offers 96 pages with 282 separate entries. Allows the option of recording three notarizations per entry, for multiple signings with the same signer. Also contains a space for a thumbprint.

—#RBK-350

Loose Notarial Certificates

NOTARIAL CERTIFICATES ON CD—$19.95

Print as many as you want whenever you want them. ASN's Notarial Certificates on CD—Includes 12 various notarial certificates and state-specific certificates for California, Florida, Massachusetts, Missouri, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Texas.

Also included on the CD—Steps to an Expert Notarial Act, Oath/Affirmation vs. Acknowledgment, and Required Elements for a Lawful Notarial Act.

Certificates provided in PDF format—REQUIRES USE OF ADOBE READER.
